

A Vision for You and Me (No FOF)

by Imam (hajji) 'Abdur-Rahim Muhammad

You and me were meant to see
Beyond the horizon...
(Can't be what you can't see) (Can't be what you can't see)
(Can't be what you can't see)
The moment you do,
You'll never want to look down again
(Discomfort vs. Exhilaration!)
Why, it was asked, do they go to the mountain's top?
Dr. King, Malcolm, so many others.../
Not content to stand at the bottom and imagine (guess!),
But to see! with Their Own Eyes,
What can't be seen from beneath it.

This is more than a feeling inside us,
A product of our intellect, yes!
A bubble wishing to burst, explode!
And release all the beautiful possibilities inside!
But still, we hide,
Afraid someone? else will not approve
But why? When all the approval ever received
Is here to strengthen us, move us forward now -
To keep on climbing, Don't look down,
Where you're going is not where you been! Where you're going is not where you been! Where you're going is not where you been!
Where you've been you can't retrace/retract
Now, time to approach your finest act
Now, more than ever -
Faith! Trust! LOVE, love, love for those around you
They have it too, they need it too -
(They're afraid, too,
But not of you, like you, Afraid to fail)

If we could put all our fear of failure (FOF)
Put it all in a box, and leave it
At the bottom of the mountain
Maybe, just maybe We all can make it To the top!
